The Official Museum Directory

Brief History

Thirty ninth edition of The Official Museum Directory was published in 2009. That provided verified data which reflected the latest professional affiliations, permanent & traveling exhibits, and contact data. Simultaneously, museums, historic sites, planetariums, technology centers, zoos were given also.

Scope and Coverage

The Official Museum Directory is published by National Register Publishing. It is the source for most accurate and up-to-date mailing list on today's museum community which includes lists of 13016 art, science, general & specialized museums, 1000 top museums by attendance, 4374 museum gift shops, 2585 museum gift shop managers (by name). It also maintains lists of 11434 Directors/CEO's and other top executives, 762 curators & museum managers etc. Its database is an essential resource for marketers, fund raising campaigns and new product introductions to targeted audience. The Official Museum Directory gives information on more than 11,000 institutions, operating in 87 fields.

Kind of Information

In its products and service guide, a variety of information is provided like exhibit design firms, insurance, lighting, museum planners, shipping and storage etc. All the products and services are given in some main categories which are further divided in some sub categories. After opening a particular sub category, total no. of available companies (which make that product/service) and detail information on that respective company can be found. As for example, clicking on 'archival products' shows the following result:
