

Home Page

Logo

URL

<https://www.inyourpocket.com/>

Subject

Geography – Europe- Travel guides

Accessibility

Free

Language

English

Publisher

inyourpocket.com

Brief History

The first In Your Pocket city guide, Vilnius In Your Pocket was written in late 1991 by German journalist Matthias Lüfkens and Belgian brothers George, Oliver and Nicolas Ortiz in Vilnius, Lithuania. Since 2013, online version is available.

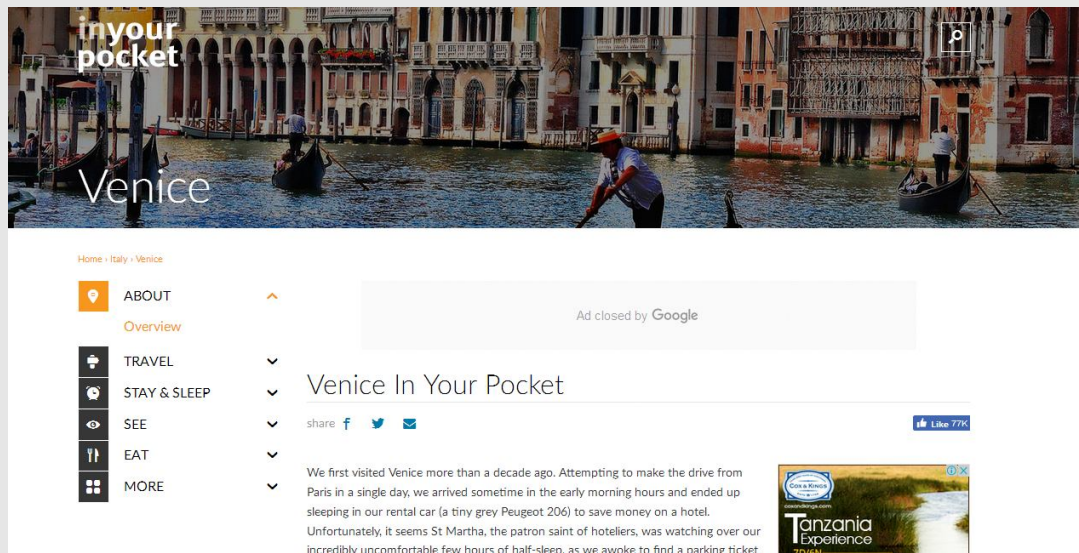

Scope and Coverage

It is a European city guide publisher and online tourist information provider. As of April 2013, it publishes city guides to 75 destinations and provides free online information to over 100 cities in 23 countries in Europe, from Athens to Zürich, Belfast to Bucharest, Tallinn to Tirana and St. Petersburg to Sofia. In Your Pocket offers attractive print and web partnership packages.

Kind of Information

Each entry consists of information about destination, conveyance like bus, water taxi, train, taxi etc, hotels according to choices i.e. upmarket hotels, mid-range hotels, budgeted hotels, mestre etc, sightseeing like top sights, museum galleries, churches, bridges, historic building, Islands etc, restaurants, cafes and more like culture and events.

Special Features

- ❖ Pdf guidebook can be downloaded by using own email at free of charge.
- ❖ One can follow inyourpocket's information through facebook and twitter.
- ❖ One can also purchase printed guide book of inyourpocket.

Arrangement Pattern

Countries are arranged alphabetically under this link (<https://www.inyourpocket.com/countries>). Under each country cities are arranged alphabetically.

Remarks

This is the typical example of travel guides organized to inform the travelers about the best hotels, restaurants, resorts, spas. This is helpful for specific community to find out best star rated hotels and resorts easily in Europe.

Comparable Tools

- Fodor's Travel (<http://www.fodors.com>)
- World Travel Guide (<http://www.worldtravelguide.net/>)
- Let's Go (<http://www.letsgo.com/>)

Date of Access July 18th, 2017