Scope and Coverage

The British Library holds over 150 million items including the King's Library, manuscripts, rare books, musical texts, maps, illustrations, drawings, paintings and photographs spanning almost 3000 years.

Kind of Information

Images Online is the Picture library of the British Library, the national library of the United Kingdom.

Images Online provides instant access to thousands of the greatest images from the British Library's collections. Offering unparalleled access to the vast array of "Treasures" of the British Library including Shakespeare's First Folio, the manuscript of Charlotte Bronte's Jane Eyre and Thomas Hardy's Tess of the D'Urbervilles, Leonardo da Vinci's Notebook, Handel's Messiah, Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures Under Ground [in Wonderland] as well as sacred texts such as the Sultan Baybars' Qur'an, the Lindisfarne Gospels, and the Golden Haggadah. Images related to all these texts are available to license via Images Online.

Historical texts are just one source of their stunning images. Antiques, antique maps, furniture, architecture, anthropological artefacts, glass, ceramics, and many many others also feature in the collection.

They add to Images Online on a daily basis through picture research and from ongoing projects within the Library.

Special Features

❖ Images Online is a completely digital service, supplying digital images of the highest quality for reproduction and display. Their team of imaging technicians ensure that the highest standards are maintained from image to image, working in a fully colour managed environment.

❖ Both quick and advanced search facilities are there.

Advanced Search: The 'Advanced Search' option allows you to search by additional search options either individually or combined. Click on 'Advanced Search' in the navigation bar running across the top of the screen.

Quick Search: At any point whilst in the system, if you want to do a new search you can enter your search criteria into the white 'Quick Search' box and click the 'GO' button or push the enter key.

The Quick Search box allows to search in a very flexible way. Clicking 'Quick Search' without entering any text will show all images in the photo library. The newest images will appear first. Users can freely enter any number of words within the 'Quick Search' field. They can use Boolean operators, i.e. AND, OR, NOT with multiple keywords.

Arrangement Pattern

All the images are arranged under three broad categories. Under these three categories some sub categories are also available.

Remarks

Available through Images Online, their extensive image bank of high quality imagery reflects the vast British Library collections available to inspire designers, editorial, and creative industries around the world.

Images of the British Library Images Online are used worldwide by a wide range of organisations including: Book publishers, National newspapers, TV production companies, Advertising and design agencies, Greetings card companies, Museums, Theatre companies, Graphic designers, Magazine publishers, Motion picture production companies.
