Kind of Information

The following are the archived newspaper resources that are available from the National Library of Wales.

19th Century British Newspapers: It contains full runs of 48 influential national and regional newspapers representing different political and cultural segments.

Daily Mail Historical Archive 1896-2004: The Daily Mail has been at the heart of British journalism since 1896. The archive also contains the Atlantic Editions, printed on board the transatlantic cruise liners between 1923 and 1931.

The Independent Digital Archive, 1986-2012: One of the most innovative papers available in terms of design and avenues of investigation, while its freedom from party political affiliation and neutral ownership make it unique in British journalism.

ProQuest: Guardian & Observer 1791-2003: This historical newspaper provides easily-searchable first-hand accounts and unparalleled coverage of the politics, society and events of the time.

The Sunday Times Digital Archive, 1822-2006: The Sunday Times has provided thoughtful analysis and commentary on the week's news and society at large. Spanning more than 800,000 pages, it is a gateway to the greatest stories and events of the last 180 years.

The Telegraph Historical Archive 1855-2000: The Telegraph Historical Archive, 1855-2000 has over 1 million pages of content and offers a fundamental insight into domestic and international affairs and culture over a time span of almost 150 years.

The Times Digital Archive, 1785-2009: The Times of London is widely considered to be the world's 'newspaper of record'. The Archive allows users to search over 200 years of this invaluable historical source.

Welsh Newspapers Online: Search and access over 1,100,000 pages from nearly 120 newspaper publications generally up to 1910. This also includes newspaper content that has been digitised by The Welsh Experience of World War One project.

Cambrian Index Online: Contains hundreds of thousands of entries from newspapers relating to people and events occurring in an area roughly represented by the former county of West Glamorgan, mainly covering the period 1804-1881 with some later entries.

Papurau Bro - Online community newspapers: An A-Z list of Welsh language community newspapers published in Wales, with links to their websites and an appendix of ones that have ceased publication.
