Submit an article

The articles editor is Professor R. W. Hoyle. Articles can be submitted at any time by sending an email to the Editor \(articles\). The editor is willing to discuss projected articles with authors before submission and to advise on whether or not the Review would be interested in carrying work on a specific subject. Articles greatly exceeding the Review's normal word length should be discussed with the editor before submission. Read more about submitting an article.

Send a book for review

The reviews editor is Dr Briony McDonagh. Please send books suitable for review to her at: Department of Geography, Environment and Earth Sciences, University of Hull, Cottingham Road.

Brief History

Agricultural History Review is a peer-reviewed academic journal published quarterly by the British Agricultural History Society. It was established in 1953.

Scope and Coverage

The Society's flagship periodical is published twice a year, in both print and PDF, and includes articles and book reviews. Part I each year also includes the Annual List of Publications on Agrarian History. The editors welcome articles and books for review on any aspect of the history of agriculture, rural society and rural economy, with especial interest in Britain and Ireland, Europe and North America.

Kind of Information

Each volume comes with title, author's details, page number, abstract etc. All volumes of the Agricultural History Review are available in PDF format. After selecting a particular volume from 'Articles by volume' & 'Get straight to the volumes', one access the PDF or download it. All the review articles of a year are presented in the volume. Subscribed users can select their article according to their need from the Full-text.

Agricultural History Review, Volume 1 (1953)

Full text of volume or combined table of contents (If the volume was published within the last three years, only the combined table of contents is available from this site; individual articles are available via the IngentaConnect site. See our Open Access Policy.) Click on the title in the list below to display the abstract of an article and a link to the full text.

H. P. R. Finberg	Editorial
Sir J. Scott Watson	Some Traditional Farming Beliefs in the light of Modern Science	Editorial
M. W. Beresford	The Poll Tax and Census of Sheep, 1549	H. P. R. Finberg

The current issue and those from the last five years are available via IngentaConnect. If one is a member of the British Agricultural History Society, one can register to see these. If one is not a member, but is affiliated to an academic institution, one could be able to get access through that institution. Back numbers of volumes more than five years old are available here without going through IngentaConnect. (They are also on JSTOR, to which many academic institutions subscribe.)

Special Features

- ❖ Linked with other publication of British Agricultural History Society, such as Rural History Today.
- ❖ Archived news, related links, work in progress are also given.

Arrangement Pattern

Volumes are arranged under 'Articles under volume' & 'Get straight to the volume'. All the volumes are arranged year wise (from previous year to next year). Under a volume, articles are arranged content wise.
